PHILADELPHIA, June 9-41 min. after 5. Taylor nominated on the 4th ballot, amid real confusion. Fillmore, of New York for Vice President. The delegates from N York, W., son of G. W. and Amelia Potter, aged 2 years Massachusetts, and Ohio greatly excited, and onte belligerent. Several able speeches made against Taylor. Since the nomination, many whigs have openly denounced the nomination months.

Mr. McCullough addressed the convention. and said the first nomination of Gen. Taylor year of his age. was made on the free soil of New-Jersey-on

Mr. Vance, of Ohio, seconded the motion. He had opposed Gen. Taylor, but was too old a soldier not to surrender when fairly whipped. He did not dispair of carrying Ohio for Gen. Taylor.

Mr. Carroll, of New York, said that the whigs never surrendered, and that New York would respond to the nomination by an overwhelming majority. Mr F. Johnson said Pennsylvania would obly respond, and the cry would be, to the of the campaign, "a little more grape. Captain Bragg. Mr Campbell, of Ohio, only asked the same andard so nobly borne by Clay to be raised by this convention. If Taylor's principles were Clay's, he would go for him. Mr. Sherman, of Ohio, opposed the adournment to Independence Square, to ratify

Mr Jenifer, of Maryland, pledged the vote of the State to the cominees. Mr. Tilden, of Ohio, offered a resolution. affinging it as the duty of Congress to prohibit slavery in free Territories; which was laid on

Mr. Holley, of Ohio, pledged the State to to its duty; they could elect Taylor for presient, and Old Whitey for vice president. Mr. Penn, of Ohio, came here a whig, and, as a whig, was bound to support the nominee; he left that he could pledge the whole vote of
